

CAMS Accounts

To obtain a CAMS account, you must be a lawyer, work in a law firm or be a self-represented litigant with a matter before the Court of Appeal. Accounts are not available to the media or members of the public. To register for an account, visit <https://cams.albertacourts.ca/public-portal>.

TYPES OF ACCOUNTS

Self-Represented Litigant

Litigants who do not have a lawyer should register as a self-represented litigant.

Law Firm

Lawyers (and support staff within a law firm) should register as a Law Firm Account.

Law Firm Administrator

The holder of a Law Firm account can be granted elevated privileges to manage accounts for registered users within that law firm.

LOGIN

In order to file documents electronically and to access your appeals on CAMS, you must log in to your CAMS account.

REQUEST A NEW PASSWORD

On the login page, in the Request New Password tab, enter your email address. You will receive an email providing further instructions to reset your password.
